This attractive detached 1930's family home is set within one of Upper Clevedon's most admired locations along Dial Hill Road. Occupying a wide plot, the property has been thoughtfully extended over the years and now provides generous accommodation ideal for family living, and is offered to the market with the advantage of no onward chain.

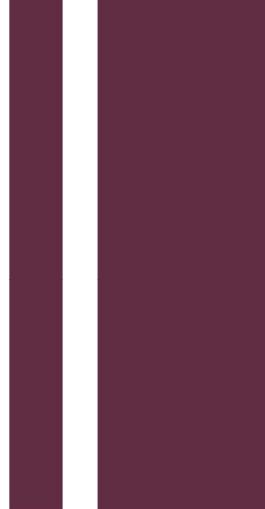

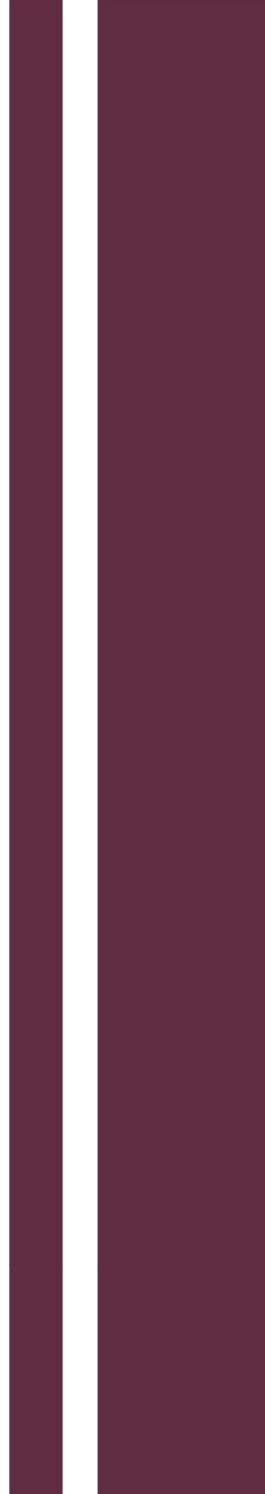

A welcoming entrance hall opens to the principal reception rooms, including a bay-fronted sitting room with gas fire and a formal dining room which in turn leads to a delightful garden room. The kitchen has also been extended to create a sociable dining space alongside the fitted kitchen, complemented by a useful utility room and cloakroom.

Upstairs, a spacious landing gives access to five bedrooms – three comfortable doubles and two singles – together with a four-piece family bathroom. The second bedroom, in particular, enjoys wonderful views across Clevedon towards the castle, the estuary, and the Welsh hills.

The outside space is equally appealing. A block-paved driveway provides off-road parking and leads to the integral garage with electric door. The gardens wrap around the front, side and rear of the property, offering plenty of space for children to play. Mature fruit trees, a vegetable plot, greenhouse and shed add further interest for those who enjoy gardening.

A much-loved home in a prime location, this property offers huge potential for the next owners to make their mark.

A much-admired family home on Dial Hill Road with generous gardens, wonderful estuary views and huge potential to create your forever home.
