Set along one of Clevedon's most picturesque and highly regarded roads and overlooking its seafront, The Beach, No. 8a is a truly charming ground floor garden apartment forming part of a Grade II listed property, dating back to the early 1800s. With its elegant double bay fronted façade, this delightful home offers a rare blend of period charm, character, and huge potential for the incoming owner to modernise and personalise.

The internal layout is both practical and inviting, with spacious rooms arranged around a central hallway, allowing for excellent flow and natural light throughout the home. The apartment currently features two generously sized double bedrooms, a well-proportioned sitting room, a separate kitchen, and a central bathroom. While many of the original features have been lost over the years, a strong sense of history remains, thanks to retained elements such as sash windows, chimney breasts, panel doors, and areas of ornate plasterwork, which hint at the property's Georgian origins.

Whether you're a downsizer seeking period elegance, a first-time buyer wanting character, or a weekend retreat owner, the potential here is undeniable.

Externally, the property benefits from sole use of the front garden and a small private courtyard to the rear. It also includes an allocated parking space. Additionally, there is a private storage cellar located beneath the ground floor.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, and positioned just moments from the seafront, boutique shops, cafés and the iconic Clevedon Pier, this is a unique opportunity to acquire a special home in one of the town's most sought-after locations.
