This attractive two bedroom semi-detached bungalow enjoys a quiet cul-de-sac setting just off Yeolands Drive, with the added benefit of pedestrian access leading directly to the riverbank footpath—perfect for coastal walks or those with pets. Beautifully maintained and thoughtfully arranged, the home offers a wonderful balance of comfort and practicality in a highly regarded part of Clevedon.

An entrance porch opens into a fitted kitchen, creating a welcoming introduction to the home. The generous living room features a charming fireplace and flows through to an inner hallway, connecting the principal bedroom, second bedroom and bathroom. The second bedroom is currently arranged as a dining room and opens into a bright conservatory, providing additional living space. The principal bedroom benefits from a range of built-in wardrobes.

To the front, a driveway provides off-road parking. The rear garden is a particular highlight, enjoying a sunny orientation with a level lawn, seating areas, timber shed and well-stocked, established borders—ideal for both relaxing and entertaining.

Bungalows in this part of Clevedon are highly sought after, thanks to their close proximity to the seafront, excellent transport links and the West End Post Office, along with scenic walks right on the doorstep.

A rare opportunity to acquire a well-positioned bungalow in a peaceful yet convenient setting—perfect for downsizers, professionals or anyone seeking single-storey living near the coast.
