

Offered with no onward chain and offers invited, is a beautifully restored, four double bedroom, two reception room, period town house of huge charm. Offering exceptionally spacious accommodation and located within the iconic St Keverne Square with all its local amenities on offer. EPC E47. Council Tax Band D. Freehold.

THE PROPERTY

This semi-detached house, built circa 1710, offers a delightful blend of historical character living. With offers invited, this property presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a spacious family home located in the heart of St Keverne Square.

The residence boasts two inviting reception rooms, perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet family evenings. The four well-proportioned bedrooms provide ample space for relaxation and personalisation, catering to families of all sizes or those in need of a home office. The bathroom with separate shower is located on the first floor.

The property's age adds a unique charm, with period features that reflect its rich history, while still allowing for the potential to modernise and make it your own. The semi-detached nature of the house offers a sense of community, while still providing privacy.

On the ground floor you enter into the hallway which leads to the kitchen/dining room and two reception rooms (one leads into the other), and stairs to the first floor. From the first floor landing are doors to three bedrooms and a bathroom. On the second floor is a very generous bedroom one.

This home is ideally situated, making it a perfect base for exploring the surrounding area. Whether you are drawn to the local amenities or coastal walks, this property is well-positioned to meet the needs of modern living.

In summary, this semi-detached house is a rare find, combining historical elegance with practical living spaces. With offers invited, now is the perfect time to consider making this charming property your new home.

Outside is a private, decked and mostly covered seating area, a workshop and access to Lemon Street.

Our vendor has owned the property since 1996 and believes the property was built around 1710-1720. It is built of stone, has slate tiles on the roof and is warmed by an oil fired central heating system which also provides the hot water.

LOCATION

The popular village of St Keverne has a good community and caters for every day needs and facilities including a shop, butchers, two public houses, health centre, church and primary school with comprehensive schooling being located at Mullion (served by a school bus) and Helston. Roskilly's is also a short walk. St Keverne was the starting point for An Gof to lead a march against taxes to Westminster over 500 years ago. Porthoustock and Porthallow are the nearest stone beaches with the Helford a short drive away with its majestic and renowned sailing waters.
