The property opens into an inviting hallway, leading to the substantial drawing and sitting rooms with impressive bay windows overlooking the front garden. The dining room benefits from French doors and external patio, while the large kitchen/breakfast room is well-equipped with a good selection of floor and wall mounted units, electric oven and hob, alongside space and plumbing for a dishwasher and washing machine. A cloakroom with WC can be found off the main hallway, while a separate walkway leads from the kitchen to the single bay garage, with 3 independent rooms providing extensive storage.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts the 4 generous double bedrooms, 2 of which are outfitted with built-in wardrobes, as well as 3 additional storage cupboards and an ensuite shower room and family bathroom, which are each finished to a good standard with full white suite.

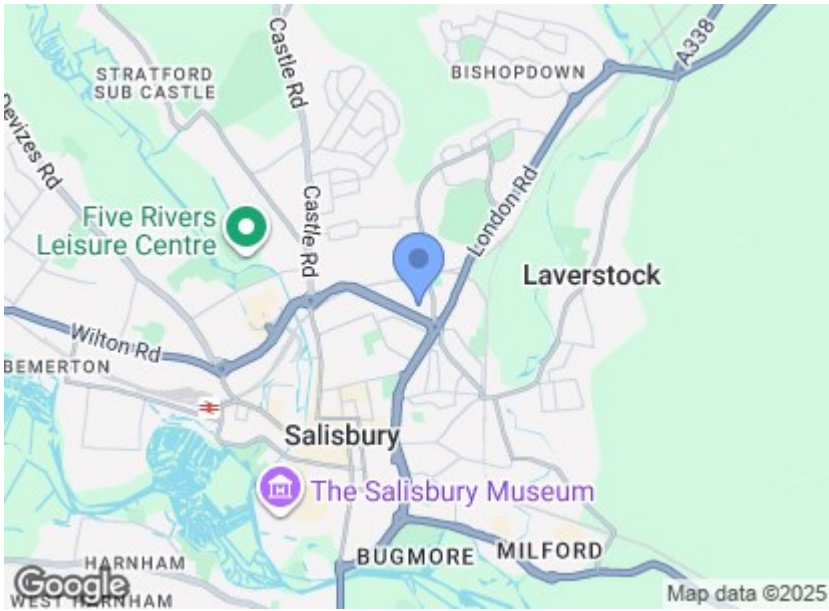

The house is setback from Campbell Road, accessed through a private driveway that leads to the rear of the property and extends further opening into a large parking area with covered car port. The exceptional enclosed garden wraps around the property on all sides, providing a notable level of privacy while remaining within comfortable walking distance of the city centre.

Campbell Road is a quiet residential, no through road located on the northern edge of the city and is within a short walk from the railway station and the city centre with its excellent range of facilities – shopping, leisure, educational and cultural as well as the renowned Playhouse theatre and the market square which has a twice weekly charter market. The mainline train station has trains to London Waterloo, journey time approximately 90 minutes. Within walking distance of the property are several primary and secondary schools, both private and state sector, including boys and girls grammar schools.
