Atkins Residential are proud to present this spacious 2 bedroom terraced property in a very quiet residential area of Langley Mill/Aldercar.

The house has just undergone refurbishment with brand new carpets, fully redecorated and a modern kitchen and bathroom with extra large oven and hob included and a brand extractor fan.

The property is available immediately for the right person to move into. The property benefits from a small front garden and very large exceptionally quiet back garden.

The house is located in a quiet residential area with good access to local shops and transport links into nearby town and cities.
