£550 Per month

Atkins Residential are proud to present this large 4 bedroom, 1 bathroom double level apartment in the highly sought-after area of Sherwood. The property is located just a few minutes walk away from all the amenities of Nottingham City Centre and includes everything you could possibly need from daily life and entertainment venues. A short walk in the other direction takes you into the more relaxed centre of Sherwood with its numerous independent bars and restaurants.

The property has been completely refurbished including a modern floorplan and new carpets, with 2 long-standing tenants in situ. There are now 2 newly refurbished rooms available from late April. The existing Tenants are both working professionals and everyone gets along well in the property.

The rooms are fully furnished, although the landlord will consider tenants desiring part-furnished. The bathroom and WC are very well maintained and modern. There is also a separate comfortable large lounge.

The property is located on a quiet and well-kept residential street with local amenities nearby and just a short walk to local transport links taking you into the city centre and beyond in one direction, and Arnold and the City Hospital in the other.
