A beautiful double fronted late Victorian villa full of original features situated on one of Beverley's most sought after residential streets is offered for sale, having been a warm and happy family home for almost 50 years.

The property offers four bedroomed accommodation over two floors and extends to approximately 1,550 square feet comprising three reception rooms with kitchen and pantry at ground floor level and four bedrooms, bathroom and WC on the first floor. There is also potential, like other neighbouring houses, to extend to the rear of the property and into the roof space subject to planning.

The garden is an absolute delight being a particularly good size with the added benefit of a garage and further car parking potential. Westwood Road is highly desirable not only for the architectural beauty of the houses, but its location offers only a very short walk to the extensive amenities of Beverley town centre and the open pastures of Beverley Westwood.

LOCATION

The popular and highly regarded historic town of Beverley in East Yorkshire boasts excellent local amenities and an extensive range of shops including high street chains, as well as a theatre, cinema, racecourse, golf course and many Public Houses and restaurants. There are also numerous landmarks including Beverley Minster and the open countryside of Westwood Pasture.

The town is ideally placed for access to Hull, York, the M62 motorway and the coast.
