A truly iconic East Riding property, White Cross Cottage is a Grade II listed former Toll House which now offers quite amazing four bedroomed detached accommodation on a substantial plot very close to the well equipped village of Leven and benefitting from great road access to Beverley, Hull City centre and the fabulous East Yorkshire coast. This significant landmark property would suit a variety of occupiers from growing families to those wanting to enjoy a wonderful home with delightful gardens and vegetable plot yet providing space for visitors and family alike. A truly outstanding property that is available on the open market for the first time in almost 25 years.

LOCATION

Leven itself is a small but steadily growing village which has a friendly community feel. The village lies within easy travelling distance of the market town of Beverley (about 6 miles), the seaside towns of Hornsea (about 7 miles) and Bridlington (about 15 miles), as well as the City of Hull (about 14 miles). There is a selection of village shops, a well-regarded primary school, two public houses and a sports hall to name but a few of the local amenities. There are some lovely walks to be found around the village, including alongside Leven Canal which is a haven for wildlife.
