Constructed in 2022 by the highly regarded local developer Beal Homes, this superb modern mid-terrace still retains the feel of a new-build property. Occupying a fantastic position opposite amenity land and a small children’s park, the house sits within a select development situated just to the south of Beverley Westwood Pastures.

The attractive layout provides a real sense of space, and the home is beautifully presented throughout, boasting two double bedrooms along with high specifications to both the family bathroom and downstairs cloakroom. Complete with a stylish breakfast kitchen and two dedicated parking spaces, viewing is highly recommended.

LOCATION

Jobson Avenue was built between 2022 and 2024 by Beal Homes, situated off Poplars Way on the south-western side of Beverley. Located just off Victoria Road—the main thoroughfare into the town centre—the property occupies a peaceful position just south of Westwood Pastures to which there is a direct footpath positioned close by which is a key feature of the property's location. Falling within the catchment area for both Beverley Grammar School and Beverley High School, the home offers convenient access to the town centre and the broad array of amenities available on the south side of this popular market town.
