This well-presented family home provides approximately 1,200 square feet of living space with a versatile layout. The ground floor consists of two flexible reception rooms, a generous conservatory, a modern kitchen, and a downstairs cloakroom.

The first floor features a master bedroom with a recently refitted shower room, alongside three further bedrooms and a refurbished family bathroom.

The property is situated at the head of a cul-de-sac with a garage and off-street parking to the front. To the rear, the good-sized garden is framed by the original Period Beverley Barracks wall, providing a distinctive and historic backdrop.

LOCATION

The property is located at the head of a small cul-de-sac on Inglefield Close which leads off from Wingfield Way on the south west corner of Beverley. Situated close to a wide range of amenities, including shops and a gym, the property is also in a perfect location to access the major road network linking Beverley with the M62 and Hull. Further, the property sits in the catchment area of the Grammar and High School.

OUTSIDE

The property is set back from the head of the cul-de-sac with a tarmac drive leading up to the integral garage. To one side the front has been laid under gravel both for ease of maintenance and to create further space for parking. Access can be gained down the side of the property to the rear garden, where there is a shed for storage.

A key feature of the property is its rear garden which is both generously sized, attractively planted and has the benefit of a Period brick wall forming the rear backdrop which was originally the perimeter wall of Beverley Barracks. A brick sett patio lies adjacent to the kitchen which leads out onto a central lawn which is surrounded by wide and well stocked flower borders. To the south east corner of the garden is a further flagged patio area which is well placed for the afternoon and evening sun.
