A particularly well designed one bedroom corner property, which extends to approximately 630 square feet offering deceptively spacious ground floor accommodation comprising living room and kitchen, whilst at first floor there is a double bedroom and separate bathroom. Outside there is a gravelled forecourt seating area.

The property is located within the heart of this very popular residential village, particularly sought after due to the facilities it offers including Post Office, primary school and leisure facilities, as well as being within an excellent senior school catchment area.

This really will make a super first time buyer or investment opportunity.

LOCATION

The popular village of Tickton offers excellent facilities including a shop, public house, primary school, hairdressers, and leisure amenities. The village itself is located to the east of the historic market town of Beverley which enjoys a fine cultural heritage, plenty of shopping opportunities and is famous for its racecourse and Minster.
