Offered with no onward chain, this attractive, well-proportioned period cottage sits in a convenient location between Beverley and Drifffield. Having been updated with double glazing and oil-fired central heating with a pressurised hot water cylinder, the property offers great potential while retaining its traditional character.

The versatile ground floor includes a modern kitchen, a ground floor shower room, and two reception rooms, one of which can easily be repurposed as an additional bedroom. Upstairs, the first floor provides two double bedrooms.

Attractively positioned on a generously sized plot, the cottage features a good-sized garden, a vegetable plot and a selection of brick outbuildings. Additionally, buyers have the unique opportunity to lease a much larger area of garden and orchard. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate everything this property has to offer.

LOCATION

Centrally positioned in the attractive village of Beswick, the property sits conveniently off the A164 near St. Margaret's Church, roughly 6.5 miles from Drifffield and 12 miles from Beverley. This convenient position places the East Coast and both vibrant market towns within easy reach, while offering immediate access to the surrounding countryside.

OUTSIDE

The property fronts directly onto the pavement in keeping with its heritage. A double timber gate provides access from the side of the property onto a largely lawned garden and which offers the potential for off-street parking.

The rear garden is well proportioned for a property of this type with a partially enclosed dog run positioned immediately adjacent to the kitchen with a timber fence and gate. To the rear of the garden is a further timber gate set into a period wall which gives access to a further generously sized vegetable plot.

Within the garden there are six brick outbuildings/original stables all set in one block and which could be repurposed for different uses.

NB The garden to this property extends to the stakes where the owner will erect a fence should the purchaser not wish to lease the further area of garden and orchard.

ADDITIONAL GARDEN/ORCHARD

The purchaser of 39 Main Street will have the option to lease an additional, generous plot of land, currently utilised as an extended vegetable garden and productive orchard.

This additional garden will be offered on a yearly licence for use as a private garden only. Please contact the office for further details.
