An absolutely stunning Grade II listed Period property believed to date from the early 19th Century and located within the heart of the Georgian Quarter of the outstandingly popular historic market town of Beverley.

Number 55 has been the subject of extensive modernisation, refurbishment and improvement works by the current owners including complete rewiring, recently fitted new boiler and heating system and now offers everything that a modern family could hope for whilst still retaining the Period charm and character of a typical Beverley property.

The accommodation is extremely spacious and versatile extending to approximately 2,600 square feet and in its current arrangement offers five bedrooms with two bathrooms, a stunning first floor drawing room with stunning views of North Bar Without and New Walk reflecting the character of the home along with an amazing ground floor kitchen day room offering all that a contemporary home needs. The gardens are very well proportioned with a gravel/resin terrace leading to a walled garden with mature flowerbeds and a further more formal garden with raised planting and pedestrian gateway leading to Seven Corners Lane. Pedestrian side gate/walkway to North Bar Without.

The extensive facilities of Beverley town centre and the open pastures of Beverley Westwood are both only a short walk away.

LOCATION

The popular and highly regarded historic town of Beverley in East Yorkshire boasts an excellent range of local amenities and an extensive range of shops including many high street chains, numerous Public Houses and restaurants. There are also numerous landmarks including Beverley Minster and the open countryside of Westwood Pasture.

The town is ideally placed for access to the surrounding areas including Hull, York, the M62 motorway as well as the coast.
