The understated elegance of this modern townhouse conceals a brilliance that's truly extraordinary. With an impeccable design that maximizes both form and function, it boasts an outstanding layout that simply works, blending style with practicality in a seamless way.

Nestled in an attractive courtyard location, just a half-mile east of the vibrant Flemingate shopping centre & town centre, The Hideaway is an exclusive enclave of chic, contemporary homes. Crafted by one of the region's most renowned architects, this development exudes sophistication and modern charm.

Meticulously constructed to the highest standards, with no detail overlooked, this semi-detached gem offers a bright and airy open-plan living space that feels both expansive and welcoming. Featuring three generous bedrooms, two stylish bathrooms, and two well-appointed reception rooms, it's the perfect fusion of elegance and comfort.

Built to the latest 2023 Building Regulations, the home is a showcase of energy-efficient innovations. With enhanced insulation, solar panels, and an electric car charging point, this property not only sets the benchmark for modern living but also reduces running costs and your carbon footprint. Compared to older new builds, this forward-thinking home could save you up to £3,000 annually in energy bills*, while cutting carbon emissions by a remarkable third.

As unique as its design, the craftsmanship is a refreshing departure from the mass-produced offerings of larger house builders. Every inch of this home has been thoughtfully crafted, from the high-end finishes to the precision of the layout. And with dedicated after-sales care, you can rest easy knowing that every aspect of your purchase is in expert hands.

LOCATION

Situated at the head of Denton Street, this bold development is strikingly different from the period terraced properties typical of Beverley's attractive centre. Nestled between Holme Church Lane and Beverley's historic Beckside, the properties lie in a convenient location just 0.5mi from the Flemingate Shopping centre, 0.8mi from the Railway Station/ Town centre and with Beverley's majestic Minster in clear view.

Beverley is the County Town of the East Riding of Yorkshire. Situated 27 miles south-east of York and 15 miles north-west of Kingston Upon Hull, Beverley is a pretty market town with a great deal to offer. Lying conveniently close to the coast (12 mi) and situated at the foot of the rolling Yorkshire Wolds, the town centre has a vibrant mix of shops, bars and restaurants and has something to offer for everyone.
