An attractive Period mid-terrace house situated in a superb position on the edge of the town centre. Offered to the market with no onward chain and benefiting from an open-plan living dining room, the property features two double bedrooms, a modern ground-floor bathroom, a kitchen, and a southerly facing garden. Largely a blank canvas for the new owner, this property represents, in our opinion, some of the last true value-for-money Period homes skirting Beverley's town centre.

LOCATION

The property is located on the south side of Morton Lane in a row of similar Period mid terraces. Morton Lane is a popular thoroughfare lying just to the east of town centre and running adjacent to the large Tesco supermarket. The location is ideal for anyone looking for a relatively central location close to the amenities and Beverley's railway station.
