This ground-floor flat offers a practical and accessible living arrangement within a modern, purpose-built development. Positioned on a quiet cul-de-sac, the property benefits from a self-contained entrance and parking immediately to the front, ensuring a degree of privacy and convenience often missing in larger apartment complexes. The communal garden provide a well-maintained outdoor space without the burden of individual maintenance, while the absence of an onward chain simplifies the purchasing process for a straightforward move.

Inside, the layout is designed for contemporary living, featuring an open-plan kitchen and living area that maximises the available space. The accommodation includes two bedrooms—one of which features fitted storage—and a modern shower room. Constructed by a local developer in 2007 to a high standard, the home achieves a respectable EPC rating of C. Its location near Swinemoor Lane provides easy access to local amenities and the surrounding road network, making it a functional choice for those seeking a well-connected home in Beverley.

LOCATION
