An extremely versatile and particularly spacious three bedroomed detached house which extends to approximately 1,050 square feet and offers three bedroomed accommodation having the benefit of a ground floor bedroom along with separate living room, substantial kitchen day room and integrated utility/store. To the first floor there are two very good sized double bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite shower room, along with a further house bathroom. The property is located in the centre of this East Yorkshire village which also benefits from excellent road access to Beverley, the East Yorkshire coast and Hull City centre.

LOCATION

Long Riston is a well placed residential village which was by-passed in 1986 and lies just off the main A165 Hull to Bridlington road. The village is within easy reach of the market town of Beverley (about 7 miles), the city of Hull (about 12 miles), and the East Yorkshire coastal town of Hornsea (about 7 miles). The village has a primary school, church, village hall with an adjoining playing field, and a public house. The surrounding area contains a wide variety of recreational and sporting facilities with, for example, four nearby golf courses. The population of Long Riston parish, which includes the hamlet of Arnold, was 535 in 1991, although the village is now expanding a good deal.
