Arranged over three floors this modern family house offers a deceptively large amount of space. With great flexibility of layout the property offers four good sized bedrooms serviced by two modern bathrooms.

Situated in a tucked away position in the ever popular village of Leconfield which lies just 2.5 miles from Beverley, the property is offered to the market with no onward chain. With a south westerly aspect to the rear there is parking to the side on this generous sized corner plot.

Benefitting from a boiler which is currently just over one year old, viewing of this property is highly recommended.

LOCATION

The property is located on Carnaby Close which is accessed off Grange Road in Leconfield.

The village of Leconfield lies approximately 2.5 miles North of Beverley and as such offers convenient access into the town and surrounding areas by road and rail. The village itself offers a range of facilities including a Primary School with a more extensive range being available in Beverley itself.
