LOCATION

The property is located in a tucked away location on the south side of this small and attractive village. Positioned at the end of just three attractive period cottages, the property overlooks open fields to the front and rear elevations.

Catwick is an attractive rural village set along the A1035 Leven to Hornsea road, offering a peaceful countryside setting with excellent connectivity. Ideally located, the village lies approximately eight miles from the historic market town of Beverley, around 14 miles from the city of Hull, and just six miles from the East Yorkshire coastal town of Hornsea.

This well-placed location makes Catwick an appealing choice for those seeking the charm of village living while remaining within easy reach of the coast, market towns, and city amenities.
