Located within this highly regarded residential area and presented to the market with no chain, this head of cul-de-sac detached true bungalow has been beautifully maintained by the current owners to provide stylish, well-proportioned accommodation and a viewing is a must. The property enjoys uPVC double glazing and gas central heating and in brief boasts welcoming entrance hallway, spacious lounge with fireplace, fitted breakfast kitchen, three bedrooms - two of which are fitted, bedroom 1 having wetroom off, and modern house bathroom. The property also enjoys a good sized conservatory with splendid views over the rear garden. There is a private side driveway providing ample off-street parking and leading down to the detached brick built garage. The rear garden provides great outdoor space and is beautifully tended. Viewing is a definite must on what is a truly exceptional property in an equally exceptional area.

LOCATION

Inverewe Way is located off Murray Crescent which in turn is off Burton Road off Castle Road in Cottingham, lying within ease of reach of the village centre. Cottingham lays claim to the title of England's largest village in terms of population. This East Riding village is so diverse with a good mixture of age groups, superb local amenities and facilities, and is within ease of reach of the historical town of Beverley and the City of Hull. There are two primary schools in Cottingham and a secondary school. The two main supermarkets are the Co-Op and Aldi with a good range of local business shops. Cottingham has its own train station and bus service. Thursday is market day with local traders meeting in the market square.
