LOCATION

Keswick Gardens lies within the East Riding boundary and within ease of reach of the village of Cottingham which is approximately 1.5 miles away.

Cottingham wears the proud title of Europe's largest village and is a really diverse, superb East Riding village with a railway station connecting to further afield, being equally positioned between the historic market town of Beverley and Hull city centre where a good range of further amenities can be located. Nearby motorway access is via the A63/M62 where further trunk routes can be located over the Humber Bridge. Cottingham has four primary schools and a highly regarded secondary school. Private schools are Tranby School and Hymers College.
