Located in this ever-popular residential area, we present to the market this aesthetically pleasing 1930's traditional bay fronted mid-townhouse. The property benefits from in excess of 1,000 square feet of versatile accommodation, with two reception rooms, modern fitted kitchen with built-in appliances, three bedrooms to the first floor, two of which are fitted, and family bathroom. The gardens are well tended and provide great outdoor space, and there is a double garage which is accessed via the tenfoot. The property offers a blank canvas for the discerning purchaser to add their own design flair within, to which an early viewing is a definite must.

LOCATION

Aysgarth Avenue is located off Cottingham Road, which leads off Hull Road in Cottingham and provides ease of access to local amenities and facilities in the area, and is also only a couple of miles from the village of Cottingham.

Cottingham is listed as one of the UK's largest villages and is a really diverse, superb East Riding village with a railway station connecting to further afield, being equally positioned between the historic market town of Beverley and Hull city centre where a good range of further amenities can be located. Nearby motorway access is via the A63/M62 where further trunk routes can be located over the Humber Bridge. Cottingham has three primary schools and a highly regarded secondary school. Private schools are Tranby School and Hymers College.
