LOCATION

Mill Beck Lane is located off Northgate and provides ease of access into the village centre.

Cottingham is said to be the largest village in England and is ideally located on the Northern outskirts of Hull, with the countryside of the Yorkshire Wolds as its backdrop and the city centre a short drive away. Located only 6 miles from the historical market town of Beverley you are surrounded by places of interest and, with the local train station and bus services, you can easily enjoy all that the area has to offer. Its location places it on a most convenient route for commuting to work, for city centre shopping, and for leisure and entertainment. The M62 and Humber Bridge routes are easily accessed. The village itself has so much to offer with four primary schools and Cottingham High School, along with Hymers College and Hull Collegiate within reach. With local shops, eateries and two supermarkets, Cottingham has such a great vibe for all age groups, making this East Riding village a popular location for all.
