PROPERTY DETAILS

Just Property is thrilled to bring to the market, for the first time in many years, this charming four-bedroom detached home in the highly desirable and sought-after area of Cooden, just moments from the beach. This is a rare opportunity to secure a well-proportioned property in an exceptional location.

Situated on the prestigious Cooden Drive, the property is within walking distance of Cooden Beach, Cooden train station (offering direct links to London and Brighton), and the renowned Cooden Golf Club. It is also conveniently close to Bexhill town centre, which boasts an excellent range of shopping facilities, the iconic De La Warr Pavilion, and leisure amenities. The nearby towns of Hastings, Eastbourne, and Brighton are easily accessible, making this location ideal for both relaxation and exploration.

The property retains many original features. It also benefits from a private driveway and a tandem garage, providing ample off-road parking.

The spacious accommodation includes an inviting entrance hallway, a formal dining room, and an impressive living room exceeding 7 metres in length. Additional spaces include a practical office, a well-equipped kitchen/breakfast room, a utility room, a larger storage cupboard, and a convenient ground-floor WC.

Upstairs, the property offers three generously sized double bedrooms, some with built-in storage, alongside a smaller fourth bedroom, a family shower room, and a separate WC.

Externally, the home boasts a nicely presented front garden and a mature rear garden featuring established plants, shrubs, and a practical storage shed, providing a serene outdoor space for relaxation and entertaining.

With gas-fired central heating, this property is ready to become a wonderful family home. Viewings are highly recommended and can be arranged through Just Property, the vendor's sole agent.
