PROPERTY DETAILS

CHAIN FREE

Just Property are delighted to present this rare-to-market home on the highly sought-after Rock-A-Nore Road. This charming property offers two double bedrooms, a versatile living area and an outdoor terrace, all just moments from the seafront.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a spacious open-plan area with a fitted kitchen and ample room for dining or entertaining. From here, doors open onto the private courtyard garden – a perfect spot to relax outdoors. The first floor features a modern bathroom complete with both bath and separate shower, while to the front the living room / third bedroom enjoys picturesque views over the historic Fishermen's Huts, a reminder of Hastings' rich coastal heritage.

The second floor is home to two well-proportioned bedrooms, both filled with natural light. The front bedroom benefits from the same stunning outlook across the Net Huts, making this a particularly special feature of the property.

The home has been carefully maintained and thoughtfully improved in recent years to ensure it is presented in excellent condition for its next owner. Significant works include a new kitchen and flooring, a refurbished bathroom, full internal redecoration, upgraded electrics including a new fuse box, and refurbished windows with replacements where required.

The property is potentially a superb investment opportunity as the property can be sold fully furnished, thanks to its prime Rock-A-Nore location. With the continued rise in staycations and Hastings' enduring popularity as a seaside destination, this home combines character, charm and strong rental potential.
