Just Property are delighted to bring to market this beautifully refurbished three bedroom terraced home, enviably positioned on the West Hill and within immediate walking distance of the West Hill itself, Hastings historic Old Town, local schools, bus services and Hastings Town Centre with its comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities, seafront and mainline station.

Recently updated throughout, the property now features a new contemporary kitchen and bathroom, full redecoration, and a versatile breakfast room.

The home enjoys stunning elevated views across Hastings towards the sea, East Hill and Country Park. The accommodation includes an entrance hall leading to a spacious bay-fronted living/dining room with beamed ceiling, sea views, direct access to the rear courtyard and a wood-burning stove. The newly fitted kitchen provides integrated oven, hob and extractor with attractive worktop, opening through to the breakfast room with access to the rear garden. A modern fitted bathroom completes the ground floor.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, with the main bedroom enjoying far-reaching sea and countryside views. There is also access to a boarded loft room with double glazed Velux window to the front, offering excellent potential for conversion to additional accommodation (subject to consents).

Outside, the property benefits from a low-maintenance enclosed courtyard with gated rear access—an ideal spot to relax.

A wonderfully presented home in a highly sought-after West Hill location. Viewing is highly recommended by the sole agents, Just Property.
