A rare opportunity to acquire this spacious and well-presented one-bedroom first-floor apartment forming part of an impressive former country house, set within beautiful communal grounds and surrounded by the stunning Sussex countryside. Benefiting from a share of the freehold, this unique home offers the perfect blend of apartment convenience and rural living.

Occupying an enviable position amongst vineyards near the sought-after village of Westfield, the property enjoys far-reaching countryside views and a peaceful setting, whilst remaining within easy reach of the historic town of Battle with its mainline railway station providing direct services to London Charing Cross and Cannon Street. Hastings Old Town and the ancient Cinque Port town of Rye are also readily accessible.

The apartment offers generous and well-proportioned accommodation with high ceilings and character features throughout, including a useful study area, spacious sitting room, fitted kitchen, double bedroom and bathroom. Residents also enjoy access to an impressive communal entrance hall within the main house, together with a guest bedroom and WC available for visiting family and friends.

Approached via a gated entrance leading to a gravel driveway with residents' and visitor parking, the property is surrounded by mature communal gardens incorporating extensive lawns, a pond and courtyard areas. Further benefits include a private shed/workshop, a wonderful sense of community and the remainder of a 999-year lease. The service charge includes unlimited hot water and oil-fired heating, making this an attractive and cost-effective home to run. Maintenance contribution is approx. £4000 per annum.

An ideal main residence, weekend retreat or downsizing opportunity, offering a truly exceptional lifestyle in one of East Sussex's most picturesque locations.
