PROPERTY DETAILS

Just Property are delighted to bring to the market the stunning Grade II listed Beech House, which has been in the current family's ownership for the past 25 years. Situated in a fabulous Area Of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the property is approached via a driveway, only half a mile from the village of Sedlescombe. This classic Sussex village offers a cricket club, village green and local amenities, including general store/post office, church, doctors surgery, public house and hotel/restaurant. Conveniently located close to Battle, Hastings, Rye and Bexhill, as well as mainline railway stations with links to London and Ashford. The property is also in the catchment area of many schools.

This beautiful property, which in part dates back to 1611, has been lovingly improved during the current ownership and now presents a fantastic four bedroom, four reception room and two bathroom detached period residence. The accommodation provides a spacious hallway with original flagstone flooring, leading through to a brand new, hand-made kitchen diner, with useful newly fitted utility and boot rooms. There is also a ground floor WC, beautiful dual aspect dining room with access to a cellar, as well as two family reception rooms. To the first floor there is a principal bedroom with wonderful ensuite, three further spacious double bedrooms, a family bathroom and light office with an independent staircase from the ground floor.

Externally, the property provides off-road parking for several vehicles, a splendid vegetable plot and beautiful mature gardens with two sun terraces and a fantastic selection of established plants and shrubs. There is also a sewage treatment works.

The property has a wealth of original features, including flooring and fireplaces, which give an amazing atmosphere to this unique period family house. To fully appreciate the character, quality and exceptional setting of Beech House, viewing is considered essential via the vendors sole agents, Just Property.
