PROPERTY DETAILS

A charming three-bedroom detached period home occupying a peaceful country lane position in the highly sought-after village of Icklesham. Believed to be of timber-framed construction beneath a pitched tiled roof, this characterful residence enjoys private gardens, a detached garage and extensive off-road parking. Requiring some updating, the property presents a wonderful opportunity to create a fabulous family home in avillage setting.

Approached via a five-bar gate, a generous gravel driveway provides parking for several vehicles and access to the detached brick-built garage.

The accommodation is rich in period features, including exposed timbers, quarry tiled flooring and original fireplaces. A welcoming entrance hall leads to a versatile study/music room with feature fireplace, while the impressive sitting room is centred around a substantial inglenook fireplace with wood-burning stove. South-facing French doors open directly onto the garden, creating a bright and inviting living space.

There is also a separate dining room with exposed beams and dual-aspect windows overlooking the gardens, leading through to a traditional-style kitchen fitted with shaker-style units and wooden worktops. A useful utility/boot room and cloakroom/WC complete the ground floor accommodation.

To the first floor, a split-level landing provides access to the principal bedroom with built-in storage and dual-aspect windows, a spacious family bathroom with separate shower, and two further double bedrooms connected by a Jack and Jill en-suite bathroom.

Outside, the property enjoys a south-facing rear garden, a generous front lawn bordered by mature hedging and fruit trees, and a detached garage offering excellent storage or workshop potential.

Icklesham is a highly regarded village with local amenities, a primary school and traditional pubs, whilst the historic towns of Rye and Winchelsea are nearby and Hastings is within easy reach.
