The Copse Great North Road

Gamston, Retford, DN22 0PY

Offers invited £350,000

Gamston, Retford, DN22 0PY

The Copse is a characterful detached 3-4 bedroom family home, set on a plot of approximately 500 sq. metres and fabulous rural rear views! Built in 1937 and constructed of cavity brick walls & rosemary tiled roof with original wood doors and exposed beams. The home provides excellent, versatile, living accommodation and benefits from double glazing, oil fired central heating, a multi fuel burning stove and enjoys a private east facing rear garden with rural views and ample off-road parking. Scope for potential expansion to the side drive (subject to consents).

The property is set in this excellent location in the idyllic conservation village of Gamston, the River Idle lies to the west of the village and Gamston Wood designated SSSI, to the east. Within close proximity is a well-regarded Primary School and village church with parts dating back to 13th century.

The village benefits from excellent transport links to serve employment, further educational and leisure needs of the community. The A1 trunk road and local airport with hangarage lies less than a mile away. Car journey to Nottingham, Sheffield, Doncaster and Lincoln take an estimated sixty-minutes. A regular bus service runs between Newark and Retford and connects to rail links from Retford to most major cities including London Kings Cross approx. 1hr 30min journey.

The nearby market town of Retford boasts a wealth of amenities including, independent shops, a library, super-markets, sports centre, restaurants, pubs, café's, community hospital and a farmer's market. Central to the town is the award-winning Kings Park which has both the River Idle and the Chesterfield Canal running through and benefits a children's play park, tennis courts, and bowling green.
