We are delighted to present this rare and most charming second-floor apartment in the sought-after Woodview Court. This development in Shoreham is home to the fascinating remains of what was once a grand estate during the 17th and 18th centuries. Situated just a short distance from the town centre and local amenities. Upon entering, you'll find a spacious reception room; The flat features two bedrooms: a generous double with fitted wardrobes and a good-sized single. The bathroom is well-appointed, with an electric shower over the bath. The fitted kitchen includes both wall and base units, an electric oven, and space for washing machine and fridge/freezer. This property is available for a long-term let from September. The block also benefits from a communal courtyard for tenants to use. Council Tax Band: C. EPC: E.
