THE DETAIL _____

abbotFox presents this exceptional, one bedroom first floor apartment. Situated within the popular and well serviced coastal village of Mundesley, this property has been successfully run as a holiday let business, but would also make a wonderful home for any buyer.

Overlooking the bowling green, and within easy reach of the Village centre and beach, Northfield House has been sympathetically converted in to apartments. This particular home is situated on the first floor, and comprises; an entrance hall, open plan lounge diner, kitchen area, generous double bedroom and shower room. The property further benefits from an allocated parking space. Offered to the market with no onward chain, an internal viewing comes highly recommended.
