abbotFox presents this chain free, two bedroom ground floor apartment. Situated a short walk from Dereham town centre this home is an ideal first time buy or investment opportunity. With accommodation comprising of an entrance hall, two double bedrooms, lounge, kitchen diner and bathroom, this home is deceptively spacious. An internal viewing comes highly recommended.

The town of Dereham, situated off the A47 approximately 15 miles west from Norwich City Centre offers a number of local amenities including supermarkets, public houses and restaurants, takeaways, clothing stores, pharmacies, and dental and doctors surgeries. Schooling for all ages is available from a variety of schools including the two local secondary schools, Dereham Neatherd High School and Northgate High School. The town is serviced by bus routes to Norwich City Centre and Peterborough. There is also a train station with lines to Wymondham with further connections onto Norwich Train Station. Due to its close proximity to the A47, travelling by car to various destinations around Norfolk is also very easy and convenient.
