THE DETAIL _____

abbotFox presents this townhouse nestled within the highly sought-after gated development of St Peter's Court on historic King Street, this impressive three-bedroom townhouse offers generous and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors, complete with a garage and private parking.

Positioned in one of Norwich's most desirable city-centre locations, the property combines the convenience of urban living with the security and exclusivity of a private gated community. The accommodation is well proportioned throughout, featuring a spacious sitting room, a fitted kitchen, separate utility room, three bedrooms and family bathroom, making it an ideal home for professionals, families or those seeking a secure city residence.

The first-floor living accommodation enjoys excellent natural light, creating a bright and welcoming environment, whilst the bedrooms provide comfortable and flexible space for family living, guests or home working. Externally, the property benefits from an integral garage together with allocated parking, a rare and highly valuable feature within Norwich city centre.

King Street remains one of Norwich's most historic and characterful locations, offering immediate access to the Cathedral Quarter, Riverside development, Norwich Train Station, and the city's vibrant array of restaurants, bars and independent shops. Excellent transport links and nearby green spaces further enhance the appeal of this superb home.
