abbotFox presents this exceptional traditional home. Retaining many original features, this home has been sympathetically improved by the current owners to blend modern convenience with character charm. With three bedrooms and a re-fitted bathroom all independently accessed off the landing to the first floor, the ground floor offers an inviting entrance hall, bay-fronted lounge, dining room, kitchen and shower room. Externally, this home offers both front and rear gardens, with the rear South facing and affording a high degree of privacy. Located within easy reach of a variety of local amenities, this is an ideal home for any professional couple or young family. An internal viewing is essential to appreciate the quality of this home.
