THE DETAIL _____

abbotFox presents this spacious and versatile five-bedroom detached home, perfectly positioned within a quiet residential setting. Offering an ideal opportunity for investors and families alike., an internal viewing comes highly recommended.

Previously used as a high-yielding, licenced HMO, sharers' property, this home offers generous proportions across two floors, with flexible accommodation that can easily adapt to a range of living arrangements. Each of the five well-sized bedrooms is complemented by multiple reception areas and a well-appointed kitchen, making this an ideal turnkey investment or a home ready to be reimagined for family life.

Outside, the property benefits from a private rear garden and off-road parking, all set within a peaceful setting perfect for both professionals and families. With scope to personalise and enhance, this is a home that offers both immediate value and long-term potential.

Located just minutes from local amenities, schools, and excellent transport links into Norwich city centre and the UEA, this is a compelling opportunity not to be missed.
