abbotFox Bespoke presents Glenbrook, over 4,000 sq ft of contemporary lateral space within a secluded plot on the edge of Caistor St Edmund, just 3 miles south of Norwich's city centre.

The property is arranged in two halves, with living and sleeping areas on either side. The living spaces are of exceptional proportions and enjoy a wonderful sense of flow from one room to the next. The sitting room, kitchen breakfast room, garden room and dining room feature floor to ceiling windows and glazed doors merging interior and exterior spaces inviting the outside in with each room opening onto the surrounding terrace.

The stunning kitchen breakfast room features an AGA (as well as a conventional oven) and has been carefully designed with a focus on functionality and ease of use as well as being a sociable space interconnecting to the dining room and garden room also.

The principal bedroom suite is complete with a dressing room and an en suite shower room. Three further double bedrooms feature en suites, In addition to this there is a WC, cloakroom, useful utility room, an integral double garage with a workshop and storage room as well as further substantial outbuildings. Designed with a high level of energy retention and efficiency in mind, the property is served by an air source system, solar panels including a solar water heating system.

Enjoying a substantial, private mature plot mainly laid to lawn and featuring a spinney.

Caistor St Edmund is well known for its extensive network of walks, cycle routes and bridleways, the Roman town of Venta Icenorum and Caistor Hall. The Wildebeest and Stoke Mill fine dining restaurants can be found in the next village of Stoke Holy Cross.
