

42, Ryle Street, Macclesfield, Cheshire SK11 8AX

This truly charming cottage offers something rather special, combining beautifully presented accommodation with delightful views across its south-facing garden onto South Park beyond.

Rich in character, the property showcases a wealth of period features whilst also benefiting from thoughtful enhancements, including a ground floor extension and a versatile loft room making it an ideal choice for first-time buyers or a small family.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, bay-fronted living room featuring an original fireplace with open fire and a well-appointed kitchen complete with a gas range-style cooker and ample space for dining and entertaining. To the rear, a bright and airy garden room with a glazed roof and doors open directly onto the garden creating a wonderful connection between indoor and outdoor living. A convenient ground floor WC completes the layout.

To the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom. From the main bedroom, stairs lead to a fully boarded and panelled attic offering excellent versatility along with useful eaves storage. The property is warmed by gas-fired central heating via a modern combination boiler.

Believed to date from circa 1900–1910, the property is freehold and successfully blends period charm with modern improvements. Recent updates include a new bedroom window, a refurbished bathroom, installation of the ground floor W.C., kitchen enhancements, redecoration, and the addition of understairs storage.

The rear garden is a particular highlight being south-facing, enclosed, and backing directly onto South Park. Thoughtfully landscaped, it features Indian stone paving ideal for outdoor dining, a neat lawn, well-stocked borders, a mature cherry tree, and useful outbuildings, including a shed with power.

Perfectly positioned, the property is just a short stroll from the town centre, railway station, and a variety of local shops, cafés, and popular pubs.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within comfortable daily travelling distance and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.

From the station proceed along Sunderland Street to the traffic lights at Park Green. Continue across the lights and the next roundabout. Turn fourth left into Hobson Street and right into Ryle Street where the property can be found on the left hand side.
