

93, Paradise Street, Macclesfield, Cheshire SK11 6QP

Situated on the ever-popular Paradise Street, this charming three-storey weavers' cottage enjoys a pleasant setting within easy walking distance of Macclesfield town centre and its wide range of amenities. The property further benefits from a valuable off-road parking space to the rear.

These iconic weavers' cottages are highly regarded for their character and architectural significance, offering distinctive and comfortable homes while serving as a lasting reminder of Macclesfield's rich industrial heritage.

The accommodation is well presented and benefits from gas-fired central heating and double glazing. To the ground floor there is a lounge, dining room, and kitchen. The first floor provides two double bedrooms and a family bathroom, while the second floor is dedicated to the master bedroom with its own ensuite.

Externally, the property features a private rear yard, attractively paved for ease of maintenance, providing a pleasant outdoor space.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park, with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links, including national motorways, major roads, and train networks, including the West Coast Line, which is direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within a comfortable daily travelling distance, and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.

Proceed out of Macclesfield along Park Lane turning sixth right into Bond Street and fourth right into Paradise Street. The property can be found on the right hand side.
