65, Prestbury Road, Macclesfield, Cheshire SK10 1BL

Situated in a highly convenient location, just a stone's throw from Macclesfield town centre and its excellent range of amenities, this handsome period home combines beautifully proportioned accommodation with a wealth of traditional character.

The property occupies an attractive position behind a handsome period frontage, enclosed by distinctive wrought iron railings and approached via a small, established front garden. The attractive façade immediately reflects the character and elegance of the property, which continues throughout the interior, with many original features including sash windows, pine doors, picture rails and high ceilings. Ready to move into, the property offers a lovely blend of period charm and comfortable modern living.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, comfortable lounge, dining room and breakfast kitchen to the ground floor. At basement level, there is a versatile basement room offering a range of potential uses, together with a W.C. and useful store. To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The property benefits from gas-fired central heating and uPVC double glazing throughout.

Externally, the property is set back from the road behind its attractive wrought iron railings, with a small front garden thoughtfully planted with established shrubs, adding to the property's appealing period frontage. To the rear is a delightful enclosed walled garden, providing a charming and private outdoor space that complements the character and style of this handsome home.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within comfortable daily travelling distance and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.
