

Drakes Cottage 13, Main Road, Macclesfield, Cheshire SK11 0BU

Langley is a truly wonderful place to call home, offering a rare combination of village charm, a strong sense of community and some of the most spectacular countryside in the area. Occupying an enviable position towards the upper end of the village, Drakes Cottage enjoys breathtaking views to the rear across the Bollin Brook towards Tegg's Nose and is offered for sale with the added advantage of No Onward Chain.

Set back behind a traditional dry stone wall and timber garden gate, this charming cottage provides characterful accommodation complemented by gas-fired central heating and double glazing throughout. The ground floor comprises a living room, separate dining room, a fitted kitchen and a light-filled garden room overlooking the rear garden. To the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a bathroom.

The delightful rear garden is designed to make the most of its exceptional setting, with a two-tier stone patio providing the perfect place for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply unwinding whilst listening to the gentle flow of the Bollin Brook and taking in the magnificent views towards Tegg's Nose.

Langley is one of Cheshire's most sought-after semi-rural villages, situated approximately three miles south of Macclesfield. Renowned for its welcoming community and picturesque surroundings, the village hosts a variety of events throughout the year and is home to two popular country pubs, The Church House and The St Dunstan Inn.

Surrounded by some of the area's finest countryside, Langley provides easy access to Macclesfield Forest, Tegg's Nose Country Park and the ascent of Shuttlingsloe, affectionately known as the 'Matterhorn of Cheshire'. With an abundance of scenic walks, cycling routes and breathtaking landscapes on the doorstep, it offers an exceptional lifestyle for those who enjoy the outdoors.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within comfortable daily travelling distance and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.

Proceed out of Macclesfield along the A523 Leek Road turning left at the traffic lights into Byrons Lane, signposted Sutton and Langley. Proceed under the viaduct and turn left into Jarman which in turn leads into Langley Road, then Main Road. Follow the road through the village and the property can be found on the left hand side.
