Property Details

Occupying the ground floor of a charming Victorian house, this attractive two-bedroom garden flat offers a well-balanced layout and a bright, sociable open-plan living space to the rear. The reception room is bathed in natural light from multiple windows and glazed doors, flowing seamlessly into a private south-west facing garden. A true highlight, the garden features a paved terrace ideal for al fresco dining and a lawn framed by mature planting, creating a peaceful and secluded retreat. The open-plan kitchen is thoughtfully arranged with ample storage, generous worktop space and skylights above, enhancing the light-filled atmosphere. The principal bedroom to the front benefits from a newly installed bay window, adding character and brightness, while the second bedroom offers space for a double bed and additional furnishings, with French doors opening onto a charming courtyard. A contemporary bathroom and a demised cellar complete this inviting home.
