Property Details

This substantial three double bedroom split-level flat, spanning over 1,000 square feet, is set within a semi detached Victorian house on sought after Herne Hill Road, just a short walk from Loughborough Junction Station. Occupying the upper floors of an attractive period property, the home offers generous proportions, excellent natural light and a versatile layout ideal for a range of purchasers. The impressive reception room features a large bay window, high ceilings and ample space for both relaxing and dining, while the separate kitchen-breakfast room is stylishly finished with sleek cabinetry and generous worktop space. Arranged over two floors, all three bedrooms are well-proportioned doubles, including a particularly spacious principal bedroom spanning the width of the building. A contemporary bathroom, spacious hallway and landing complete the accommodation. Further benefits include new rear sash windows installed in 2022 and a brand new boiler with a ten-year warranty.
