Property Details

This beautifully bright two-bedroom apartment occupies the first floor of an attractive Victorian terraced property, combining charming period character with a well-balanced layout and an exciting blank canvas for purchasers to make their own. The impressive semi-open-plan reception and kitchen spans the full width of the property, with a beautiful bay window and sash windows flooding the space with natural light. A striking feature fireplace, built-in alcove shelving and generous proportions create a welcoming reception area, while the modern kitchen features sleek white gloss, handleless cabinetry, ample worktop space and a tiled splashback. Both well-proportioned bedrooms are positioned at the rear, enjoying leafy views and a quieter outlook. The bathroom sits conveniently between the bedrooms and includes a white suite with bathtub and shower over.
