Property Details

A bright and attractive one double bedroom apartment moments from Brockwell Park. Designed for modern living, the property boasts a high energy rating, keeping running costs low, and a thoughtful layout maximising space and light. The open-plan reception is generously proportioned, with large South-facing windows flooding the space with natural light and offering pretty views of the surrounding neighbourhood and treetops of Brockwell Park. There's ample room to lounge, dine and entertain, with a stylish kitchen installed in late 2022 featuring integrated appliances, including a dishwasher, green cabinetry and crisp white worktops. Peacefully positioned to the rear, the sizeable double bedroom offers fitted wardrobes, carpets and a calming décor. The contemporary bathroom includes both bath and shower. This well-maintained home will appeal to those seeking a bright, efficient and sociable property, set within a friendly building community and moments from the greenery of Brockwell Park, excellent local amenities and superb transport links.
