Property Details

A bright and charming two bedroom apartment with a central yet private setting. Enjoy the exciting buzz of the historic Electric Avenue by day, with a quieter evening setting. Set back and tucked away behind secure gates, this bright flat has been considerately designed to maximise the space, with high ceilings adding to the ambience. Measuring almost six meters in length, the heart of the home is the open-plan reception, bathed in light from a pretty South-facing arched window. There is comfortable space in which to lounge with a neatly integrated kitchen wrapping around to enhance the sociable vibe, culminating in a breakfast bar to offer a convenient dining space. Both bedrooms are comfortable doubles with built-in wardrobes and large sash windows, finished with cosy carpets. One of the bedrooms is nestled at the rear and each are versatile neutral rooms with the potential to re-purpose should the purchaser wish to live in the property as a large one bed. A contemporary bathroom separates the bedrooms, providing a desirable level of privacy for each, making it ideal for those who would prefer to rent out a room. A truly versatile home! There is also additional storage in the entrance hallway.
