Property Details

A charming one-bedroom apartment with a South-West facing garden, set within an attractive Victorian property on the desirable Arlesford Road, with friendly neighbours. Brimming with character, this appealing home also boasts a handy utility cellar, all within easy reach of Clapham's vibrant amenities and excellent transport links. The reception room forms the heart of the home, grand and full of period charm, with high, corniced ceilings, a feature fireplace, wooden floors, and a large bay window dressed with plantation shutters. Tucked to the rear, the separate dine-in kitchen is a delightful space to cook and entertain, featuring shaker-style cabinetry given a contemporary edge with contrasting metal drawers. Wooden worktops provide a stylish yet practical finish, while there is ample room to accommodate a dining table. A plumbed utility cellar offers extensive storage, discreetly housing laundry appliances. The South-West facing garden is a true suntrap, with a paved section for BBQs and a lush wrap-around faux lawn. Peacefully positioned, the double bedroom features a fireplace and fitted storage, while the modern bathroom boasts a bathtub with overhead shower, finished in contemporary slate tones.
