Property Details

An appealing two bedroom flat with a private South-East facing terrace, in a luxury development. Designed with consideration for wheelchair users, this particular apartment has wide hallways and doors. Set within a secure gated modern build with outstanding build warranty, incredible heat and noise insulation and finished with exceptional attention to detail. A stunning open-plan reception has floor to ceiling windows and glass doors opening out onto a private terrace, covered for use come rain or shine. The kitchen is integrated with appliances, with additional pantry storage running adjacent. Set to opposing sides of the property, the two comfortable double bedrooms are flooded with light from full height windows, glazed to the highest modern energy standards. There is a spacious luxury family bathroom with both shower and bath. Last but not least, further storage cupboards in the appealing entrance hall. There is a strong community feel to the building and the maintained grounds include a communal terrace, lift and bike storage.
