Property Details

A Dual aspect reception offers a sociable environment to relax, unwind, dine and entertain and this space feeds onto an attractive, integrated kitchen with views over the pretty landscaped garden at the rear. The current owner has taken great care of the property, maintaining the beautiful Victorian charm and finishing the property in tasteful, neutral décor. Bespoke storage and a large bay window that floods the room with light add to the character. The entertaining space feeds through to the garden, which was expertly designed to maximise the space on offer and create an ideal garden for hosting, embellished with stunning, seasonal floral displays. The master bedroom is a particularly impressive room with excellent space and storage options, benefitting from an abundance of natural light and attractive views onto the pretty street below. The second room would make a fantastic guest room, nursery, dressing room or anything that the purchaser requires. A beautiful family bathroom completes this property. The property is an ideal investment for anyone who is looking to add value, with a substantial loft space that could be converted as neighbouring properties have done on the road.
